PROFILE
Previously a secondary school Mathematics Teacher, but recently retrained as a Full-Stack Web Developer.

A hardworking, versatile, focused and initiative-taking person who quickly grasps new and complex concepts. Extremely adaptable, with excellent communication skills at all levels. Experienced in teamwork and as a leader but happy to work on own initiative. My experience of widely differing situations demonstrates my versatility, which enables me to creatively approach various problems that I encounter, while remaining confident and good humoured under pressure.
